

Mountain View Public Library

Suruchi Mohan

author of the novel

Divine Music

In her richly textured debut novel, Suruchi Mohan opens our eyes to the intricate world of North Indian classical music. Steeped in the culture and traditions of India, Divine Music is a captivating read. Gail Tsukiyama, best-selling author

This is a novel about the beauty and power of music, its ability to help and heal, to come to one's rescue after everything else has failed. David Albahari, author, Words are Something Else

Mohan's impressive debut explores the connections between spiritual and physical passion in a shifting Indian society. . . a rich multi-generational portrait of a changing cultural and political landscape. Publishers Weekly

Wednesday, January 27, 7:00 pm
Mountain View Public Library Community Room
585 Franklin Street
Mountain View, CA 94041
650 903 6337